

A 'member' of Rescue Online is a company or individual providing services to support a commercial vehicle breakdown.

Members will include:

Recovery agents.

Air-conditioning specialists.

Tail lift specialists.

Electrical engineers.

Hydraulic engineers.

Mechanical engineers.

Commercial vehicle centres and dealers.

Features and benefits to members

- o Guaranteed, prompt payment
- o Your costs are accepted by customers before work commences
- o Reduced administration costs, particularly credit control
- o Customers key vehicle and equipment details are stored on the system for quick and easy reference when model / serial numbers are required
- o Ability to increase business opportunities by building your own on-line network of complimentary service providers within the system
- o Best possible location for advertising, putting you in the frame at the exact moment the customer requires emergency assistance
- o Accurate specification of the services you provide means no time wasted chasing unsuitable work
- o Newsletters relevant to Rescue Online services
- o Customer ratings and prices published for all service providers, benefiting those members who offer their services at a fair price
- o Support of RISC - the brand new charity for the rescue industry